

Brown to Trotter (I63/190)

Victoria by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen defender of the faith. To Our Right Trustee and well beloved Councillor Edward George Fitzalan Howard (commonly called Lord Edward George Fitzalan Howard) Deputy to Our Right Trustee and Right Entirely beloved cousin Henry Duke of Norfolk Earl Marshal and Our Hereditary Marshal of England Greeting. Whereas William Brown of Horton Place in the parish of Epsom in the county of Surrey formerly of Penshurst in the county of Kent Esquire and Mary Elizabeth his wife only child of George Welbank late of St James' Place in the parish of St James' Westminster in the county of Middlesex Esquire by Ann his wife eldest daughter of James Trotter late of Horton Place aforesaid both deceased and sister of John Trotter late also of Horton Place Esquire sometime knight of the shire for the western division of the said county of Surrey also deceased have by there petition humbly represented unto Us that by Indenture bearing date the twenty sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and fifty one made between the said Guntrotter of the first part Elizabeth Trotter of Eaton Place in the county of Middlesex spinster (sister of the said John Trotter) of the second part and others of the third part. After reciting that by certain Indentures of the thirtieth and thirty first days of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty nine the Manor of Horton in the Parishes of Ebbisham otherwise Epsham otherwise Epsom and Ewell or elsewhere in the county of Surrey and the site of the Manor of Horton aforesaid and divers messuages farms lands tenements closes pieces or parcels of ground hereditaments and premises therein mentioned in which the said Elizabeth Trotter had or was entitled to any estate tail or right of entail were conveyed limited and assured by the said Elizabeth Trotter with the consent of the said John Trotter as protector of the settlement made thereof subject and with out prejudice to certain prior uses and estates subsisting in the same hereditaments being estates by a certain Indenture of Release of the third day of February one thousand eight hundred and one limited to the use of the said John Trotter for his life with remainder to trustees to preserve contingent remainders with remainder to uses in favour of his sons and daughters in tail with remainder as to one undivided moiety to the use of the said Ann Welbank (who has since died leaving your petitioner the said Mary Elizabeth Brown her only issue) in tail general. To such uses upon and for such trusts intense and purposes as the said Elizabeth Trotter and John Trotter should by any deed or deeds with or without power of revocation and new appointment from time to time or at any time jointly direct limited or appoint: it was witnessed that the said Elizabeth Trotter and John Trotter did in exercise of the power or authority so limited or reserved to them jointly direct limit and appoint the said Manor and messuages to the uses and upon and for such trusts intense and purposes and with under and subject to such powers provisoes limitations and declarations as they should by any deed or deeds with or without power of revocation jointly direct limit or appoint and subject thereto to the use of the said Elizabeth Trotter and her assigns during her life and from and after her decease to the use of Maria Trotter the wife of the said John Trotter for life and after her decease upon such trusts as the survivor of the said Elizabeth Trotter and John Trotter should after the decease of the other of them by any deed or deeds with or without power of revocation or by his or her last will and testament or any Codicil or Codicils thereto direct limit and appoint and in default thereof and subject to the term of one thousand years the trusts of which have since determined to the use of the petitioners wife the said Mary Elizabeth Brown for life with remainder to her eldest son William Brown for life with remainder to his first and other sons in tail male with others remainder over: that in the said deed is contained the following Claus “provided always and it is hereby directed appointed and declared that ever person (not being a female under coverture) who for the time being shall be entitled by virtue of the limitations hereinbefore contained to an estate for life or any estate tail in possession in the said Manor and other hereditaments hereby limited and appointed or intended so to be and not previously having the surname and arms hereinafter required to be used and also the husband of any female who shall so become entitled shall forth with apply for and obtain an Act of Parliament or Her Majesty’s Licence authorising him or her to use the surname of Trotter either alone or in addition to his or her own surname but so never the less that the name of Trotter shall be the last or principal name) and also shall wear the family arms of Trotter quartered with his or her own family arms and henceforth from time to time shall assume use and wear such surname and arms accordingly” with a Claus of forfeiture in case of refusing or failing to comply with such direction for the space of twelve calendar months after becoming entitled to the possession of the said real estates or of discontinuing to use the said surname and arms: that the said John Trotter departed this life without issue on or about the thirty first day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty six and without having joined with the said Elizabeth Trotter in making an appointment under the power aforesaid: that his widow the said Maria Trotter departed this life on or about the twenty seventh day of December one thousand eight hundred and sixty one: that the said Elizabeth Trotter departed this life unmarried on the twenty fifth day of October last past her upon the petitioner the said Mary Elizabeth Brown became entitled to the entirety of the rents and profits of the estates limited as aforesaid: that the petitioners are desirous of complying with the condition expressed in the said recited Indenture of the twenty sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and fifty one by taking the surname and arms of Trotter: the petitioners therefore most humbly pray Our Royal Licence and Authority that they may take and henceforth use the surname of Trotter in lieu and instead of that of Brown and that he the said William Brown may bear the arms of Trotter quarterly with his own family arms and that such surname and arms may in the in like manner be taken borne and used by the issue. Know Ye therefore that We of Our Princely Grace and special favour have given and granted and do by these presence give and grant unto them the said William Brown and Mary Elizabeth Brown his wife Our Royal Licence and authority that they may take and henceforth use the surname of Trotter in lieu and instead of that of Brown and that he the said William Brown may bear the arms of Trotter quarterly with his own family arms and that such surname and arms may in like manner be taken borne and used by their issue the said arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms and recorded in Our College of Arms otherwise this Our Licence and permission to be voided and of none affect: Our Will and pleasure therefore is that you Edward George Fitzalan Howard (commonly called Lord Edward George Fitzalan Howard) Deputy to Our said Earl Marshal to whom the cognisance of matters of this nature doth properly belong do require and command that this our concession and declaration be recorded in Our College of Arms to the end that Our Officers of Arms and all others upon occasion may take full notice and have Knowledge thereof: and for so doing this shall be your Warrant: given at Our Court at St James’ the third day of December 1868: in the thirty second year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty’s Command
Gathorne Hardy.

I WILLIAM SAMPSON TROTTER late of Horton Manor Epsom in the county of Surrey but now residing at Whitney Court in the county of Hereford Esquire hereby revoke all testamentary dispositions heretofore made by me and declare T R O this to be my last will and testament

1 I appoint my wife Constance Selina Trotter to be the sole EXECUTRIX and trustee of my will and she or her executors or administrators or other the trustee or trustees for the time being hereof are hereinafter called my "trustee or trustees"

2 I appoint my trustee or trustees to be the trustee or trustees of this my will for the purposes of the Settled Land Act 1882 and also for all the purposes of Section 42 of the Conveyancing and Law of Property Act 1881

3 I appoint my said wife Guardian of my infant children (if any)

4 I confirm the settlement dated the fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty six made in contemplation of my marriage with my said wife and declare that the provisions hereby made for her and my children shall be in addition to and not in satisfaction of those made for them by such settlement

5 I bequeath to my said wife absolutely all my plate plated articles furniture glass china pictures prints musical instruments books and other articles of household use or ornament (except the silver bugle given to me by my great aunt Maria Trotter and the Miniature of my grandmother) watches jewels ornaments of the person linen wearing apparel carriage and riding horses carriages saddlery harness and stable furniture wines liquors and household stores and provisions whatsoever and wheresoever

6 I bequeath the articles excepted from the bequest in the last clause unto my trustee or trustees upon trust to allow the same to go and devolve together with the freehold premises hereinafter devised so far as the rules of law and equity will permit

7 I bequeath the following pecuniary legacies to my godchild Ellen Laura Willis the daughter of my friend Henry Willis of Horton Lodge Epsom Surrey) one hundred and five pounds to my godchild Aubrey Robert Gillett Trotter (son of my brother Henry Eden Trotter) one hundred pounds and to my godchild Meyrick Archibald Trotter (son of my brother Ernest Balfour Trotter) one hundred pounds

8 I bequeath to the trustees or trustee for the time being of the said settlement of the fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty six the sum of three thousand pounds to be held by them upon the trusts and subject to the powers and declarations by and in the said settlement declared and contained of and concerning the sum of seven thousand pounds charged on the Horton Estate and thereby settled or as near thereto as the death of parties and other circumstances will permit

9 In pursuance of the power in that behalf given or reserved to me by the said Settlement of the fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty six I hereby appoint and direct that the whole of the income of the fund therein referred to as the

"husbands trust fund" (including the said three thousand pounds and the moneys and investments representing the same) shall from and after my death be paid to my said wife during the residue of her life but so that she shall not have power to deprive herself of the benefit thereof by anticipation

10 If there shall be no child of my marriage with my said wife who attains a vested interest in the husbands trust fund under the trust in default of appointment in the said settlement contained and if my said wife shall survive me and the child or children (if any) of my said marriage then I bequeath to my said wife absolutely all my estate and interest in the said husbands trust fund (including the said sum of three thousand pounds and the moneys and investments representing the same) and in the income thereof

11 I devise and bequeath to my said wife absolutely all my estate and interest as tenant in any messuages and hereditaments (of whatever tenure) which at my death shall be in my personal occupation she paying the rent reserved by and performing and observing the covenants on the part of the lessee and conditions contained in the lease of the same and keeping my general estate indemnified therefrom

12 I devise all the manors messuages lands and hereditaments being freehold of inheritance, ^{situated} in the county of Surrey or elsewhere in England or Wales of or to which I shall at my death be seized or entitled or over which I shall at my death have a general power of appointment or disposition by will unto my said wife Constance Selina Trotter for the term of her natural life and from and after her decease I devise the same unto all or such one or more exclusively of the other or others of my children or remoter issue by my said wife (such remoter issue to be born and take vested interests within twenty one years from the death of my said wife) at such ages or times or respective ages or times if more than one in such shares with such executory or other trusts for their respective benefits and such provisions for their respective maintenance education and advancement upon such conditions and in such manner as my said wife shall by any deed or deeds revocable or irrevocable or by will or codicil appoint and in default of and subject to any such appointment I devise the same hereditaments to the use of the first and every other son of mine successively according to their respective seniorities in tail with remainder to the use of the first and every other daughter of mine successively according to their respective seniorities in tail with remainder to the use of my brother Henry Eden Trotter in tail with remainder to the use of my brother Alexander Kenyon Trotter in tail with remainder to the use of my brother Ernest Balfour Trotter in tail with remainder to the use of my sisters Harriet Amelia Trotter Mary Louisa Trotter Emily Ann Trotter Gertrude Helen Trotter and Adela Maria Trotter or such of them as shall be living at my death in equal shares as tenants in common in fee simple.

13 I devise and bequeath all the residue of my real and personal estate whatsoever and wheresoever unto my trustee or trustees upon trust that my trustee or trustees shall call in sell and convert into money such parts thereof as shall not consist of money And I declare that my trustee or trustees shall out of the money to arise from such calling in sale and conversion and the ready money of which I shall die possessed pay my funeral and testamentary expenses and debts and the legacies (other than specific) bequeathed by this my will or any codicil hereto And shall hold the residue of the same moneys as if the same were capital moneys arising under the Settled land act 1882 on a sale of part of the said freehold hereditaments hereinbefore devised in Settlement

14 In case the moneys to arise from such calling in sale and conversion as aforesaid and the ready money of which I die possessed shall together be insufficient for the payment in full of my funeral and testamentary expenses and my debts and the legacies (other than specific) bequeathed by this my will or any codicil hereto I direct that so much of such expenses debts and legacies respectively as shall remain unsatisfied shall be a charge upon and be raised and paid out of the said freehold hereditaments hereinbefore devised in settlement

15 I authorise my trustee or trustees to postpone during such period as she or they shall think fit the sale calling in and conversion of the whole or any part of my estate real or personal hereinbefore directed to be converted but I direct the net rents profits and income arising from the same or any part thereof until such sale calling in and conversion shall as well during the first year after my death as afterwards be treated as income but that no reversion or other property not actually producing income shall be treated as producing income

16 If and so long as there is only one trustee of this my will capital money arising under the settled land act 1882 or under this my will may notwithstanding anything in that Act contained be paid to such one trustee alone And all the powers conferred on trustees by the settled land acts 1882 and 1884 or either of them may be exercised by one trustee only and all the provisions of those acts respectively applicable to trustees (including notices under section 45 of the Act of 1882) shall be satisfied though there may be only one trustee for the time being in existence hereof

17 At the time of or previously to any sale of any of the hereditaments hereby settled my trustee or trustees may enter into any covenants or arrangements or cause any purchaser to enter into any covenants or arrangements restrictive of erecting buildings or regulating the position or value of buildings to be erected on the hereditaments hereby settled or any part thereof or otherwise restrictive of the user of any such hereditaments or any buildings for the time being thereon whether sold or intended to be sold or in respect of the making repairing or maintaining roads sewers or fences or other like matters or any other arrangements which may be deemed expedient for adapting or developing the same hereditaments or any part thereof as a building estate

18 My trustee or trustees may raise on mortgage of the hereditaments hereby settled or for the time being subject to the subsisting uses or trusts of this my will or any part thereof all or any moneys which may be charged or become raisable by virtue of any of the provisions hereinbefore contained or which may be payable or required for equality of exchange or partition or for the purchase or acquisition of any hereditaments of any tenure or easement or other right or privilege by statute authorised to be purchased or acquired or which may be required for the purpose of effecting any permanent improvements or for the renewal of any lease or grant for the time being subject to the uses or trusts of these presents or for discharging or consolidating any charges or incumbrances affecting any hereditaments of any tenure for the time being subject to the uses or trusts of this my will or which may otherwise be required for the purpose for which capital moneys arising from a sale of the said premises are hereby or by statute authorised to be expended or for the payment of any expenses incurred by my trustee or trustees in or about the management protection or preservation of the premises for the time being subject to the uses or trusts of this my will or otherwise in exercise of the trusts or powers hereof which my trustee or trustees may think fairly chargeable against the inheritance or corpus of the said premises and so that no mortgagee advancing money on a mortgage purporting to be made under this present power shall be concerned to see that such money is wanted or that no more than is wanted is raised and to secure the repayment of any moneys so raised as aforesaid with interest at such rate as may be thought proper by a mortgage or mortgages for any term of years or in fee simple of the hereditaments to be charged therewith and either with or without a power of sale and with such other powers and provisions and upon such terms in all respects as may be deemed expedient

19 Capital money arising under the Settled Land act 1882 or money representing surplus rents and profits during a minority may be invested in the name or names of my trustee or trustees in any of the public stocks or funds or government securities of the United Kingdom or India or any colony or dependency of the United Kingdom or upon freehold copyhold leasehold or chattel real securities in England or Wales but not in Ireland or in or upon the stocks shares (being fully paid up and of limited liability) debentures debenture stock mortgages or securities of any corporation company or public body municipal commercial or otherwise carrying on business or constituted for any purpose in the United Kingdom or India or any colony or dependency of the United Kingdom but not including any company which has not during the five years immediately preceding the date of investment paid a dividend on its ordinary stock or shares of three per cent at the least of property pass under any specific bequest contained in this my will or any codicil hereto and generally of determining all matters as to which any doubt difficulty or question may arise under or in relation to the execution of the trusts or powers of this my will or any codicil hereto or any other of the powers of my trustee or trustees And every determination of my trustee or trustees in relation to any of the matters aforesaid whether made upon a question formally or actually raised or implied in any of the acts or proceedings of my trustee or trustees in relation to the premises shall bind all persons interested and shall not be objected to or questioned upon the ground that my said wife has acted as a trustee in determining a matter in which she is or may be personally interested or upon any other ground whatsoever

21 In addition to the ordinary powers and right to reimbursement by law given to trustees my trustee or trustees shall be at liberty to purchase any hereditaments with less than a marketable title and to dispense wholly or in part with the investigation or production of the lessors title on lending money on leasehold securities or otherwise to lend on or continue any security with less than a marketable title and shall not be answerable for any loss occasioned thereby

22 My trustee or trustees may pending the negotiation and preparation of any security or during any other time while an investment is being sought for deposit any money at any Joint stock or other bank either at interest or otherwise as may be deemed expedient all which interest (if any) shall for the purposes of these presents be deemed income and be applicable accordingly

23 Any person who may be a trustee of this my will and may be a Solicitor or engaged in any other profession or business shall be entitled to make and receive all such charges and emoluments for business (whether strictly professional or not) done by him or his firm as he would have been entitled to make and receive in respect of such business if he had not been a trustee IN WITNESS whereof I have hereto set my hand this twenty fourth day of January one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine -

W SAMPSON TROTTER - Signed by the said testator as his last will in the presence of us who at his request in his presence and in the presence of each other both present at the same time have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses -
