IN THE CITY OF LONDON, Capital of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the twentieth day of March One thousand nine hundred and fifteen, before me HENRY ALFRED WOODBRIDGE, Notary Public thereof and the witnesses hereinafter signed, appeared RONALD HERBERT GILLETT TROTTER, a bachelor, twenty nine years of age, residing at "Horton Lodge", Christchurch Road, in the Town of Reading, County of Berks, England, temporarily in this City, being in good health, in the full enjoyment of his intellectual faculties and of sound judgment, according to his collected mode of reasoning, as to all which and that the Appearer is known to me, I certify and he stated:

That desiring to be provided with a Testamentary Disposition in the event of his death and disposing with due consideration and judgment regarding everything in the discharge of his conscience and for the purpose of avoiding any doubts and questions which for want thereof might arise after his death, he makes and executes his solemn Will referring to his property situate in the Argentine Republic in the best form of law in manner following:

FIRST: He declares that he professes the Protestant Religion.

SECOND: He declares that he is the lawful son of the Reverend Canon Henry Eden Trotter and Mary Hodgson Gillett or Trotter, both of whom are living.

THIRD: He declares that he is a bachelor and neither has, nor has had, nor does he acknowledge any natural issue.

FOURTH: He declares that all the property he possesses in the Argentine Republic will appear from his papers and Title Deeds in the possession of Messrs Lockwood & Company of the City of Buenos Aires, Merchants.

and Canon Henry Eden Trotter as his sole and universal heir of all his property, both real and personal and of any other nature soever in the Republic aforesaid.

SIXTH: He declares that he appoints his said father and Charles Lockwood, a partner of the Firm of Lockwood & Company of the said City of Buenos Aires, as the Executors of this his Will, both jointly and each of them separately, trusting they will carry out with care the provisions herein contained and he extends the term of Executorship for all such times as they may require for the discharge of their office.

SEVENTH: He revokes all Wills he may heretofore have made, referring to his property in the said Argentine Republic.

And not having anything further to declare, this Instrument was read to him, which all the parties present heard, and they saw the Testator who ratified its contents and signed it with the witnesses specially called for the purpose of this act and known to him, namely, Ernest Henry Roberts, William Coyle and Ernest Pask, all residents of this City, persons above the age of twenty three years, competent to act as such and to me known, as to all of which I attest.
